Correspondence

- 1) 1st Johnston Scout Group – Request for help in locating a suitable plot for a new scout hut - Members agreed that the Clerk should contact (a) Stephen Thomas to get advice on registration of the land opposite the Church, and (b) Scout Group to invite to April meeting to discuss the matter in more detail. Matter to be placed on April agenda.
- 2) Kidney Wales Foundation – ‘Walk for Wales’ event, March 28th, 2010 – noted.
- 3) Police – Notification of new telephone number (101) for non-urgent calls – noted.
- 4) Welsh Language Board – Approval of Welsh Language scheme effective from 21st January 2010 – noted.
- 5) South West Wales Association for Play – Invitation to conference on ‘Play in Partnership’, at National Botanic Gardens, Wednesday March 24th 2010 – noted.

Any necessary discussion of school playground matters

The odd-job man had confirmed that the work in the playground was expected to be started within the next month or so. The Clerk informed Members that Stephen Thomas had agreed to act in the transfer of the triangle of land to Mr. Campfield.

Any other business

Mud in Village. C’llr Barbara Summons asked if anything could be done about mud in the Village, especially around the school bus drop-off point. However, Members thought the Community Council would probably have to fund any improvement works itself.

Clareston. C’llr Barbara Summons mentioned that a dip had formed in the road opposite the entrance to Clareston, and this had subsequently filled with water.

Public forum

There were no members of the public at the meeting.

The meeting concluded at 7-35pm. Next meeting, Monday 12th April, 2010, 7pm.
